

Add Yourself To The Map of Schools & Artist Educators Using AccessArt

Add yourself as a school or artist educator to the AccessArt Map.

If you are an artist educator who believes in the Core Values of AccessArt, and would like to be featured on the AccessArt map, please submit your details via the form on this page.

AccessArt has always seen Artist Educators as a vital cog within the wider field of education.

Providing diverse viewpoints and approaches, artist educators hold their own unique methods and perspectives, helping to evolve art education in various settings around the world.

The AccessArt map celebrates artist educators and highlights the reach artist educators have. By providing a place for artist educators to show their presence, we hope to create a tool to help connect with new audiences.

Please note, that AccessArt does not endorse any of the artist educators who appear on our map.

I AM A TEACHER IN A SCHOOL

Schools will be invited to be added to the map when they join AccessArt. If you are using AccessArt and would like to be added to the map retroactively, we invite you to fill out the form to the right.

Schools can find out more about joining AccessArt here.
