AccessArt has over 1500 resources to help inspire your visual arts teaching, learning and practice. On this page we gather together some of our main projects and initiatives to help give an overview of our areas of expertise.

Pedagogy in Practice

As well as providing resources for use in educational settings, AccessArt, also helps to build understanding and curiosity about teaching art. Enjoy our Pedagogy resources to build your experience as an educator.

DrawAble

Designed to help schools deliver an inspiring and appropriate curriculum for pupils working at home or school, AccessArt DrawAble connects drawing, narrative and visual literacy to provide pupils with a creative bridge to help them navigate from lockdown towards the new normal.

Inspire 2020

Over the course of a year, AccessArt worked with Kate Noble, and the Fitzwilliam Museum Learning Team, to inspire primary school teachers, in and around Cambridgeshire, to take a closer look at Cupid and Psyche by Jacopo Del Sellaio to inspire creative responses by pupils in their schools.

This collection of AccessArt resources both documents the Inspire journey and signposts AccessArt posts which supported the teachers.

Developing the Primary Art Curriculum

AccessArt has many years experience in helping schools (and the wider community) deliver high quality visual arts teaching. Our core aim is to raise the quality of visual arts teaching and learning through sharing inspirational practice.

Teaching art should be rewarding, and our curriculum planning advice will help teachers build their own facilitation skills, as well as providing comprehensive and creative activities for children.

The Sketchbook Journey

AccessArt has overhauled its Sketchbook Resources in the form of the AccessArt Sketchbook Journey, aimed at all ages of learners and their educators.

Inset & CPD

Our zoom-based sessions help bring AccessArt to life, and provide a great opportunity to meet other educators and creative practitioners.
