Setting Up

The launch of the #BeACreativeProducer Project consisted of props made by the teenagers throughout the project, over 26 minutes of final animations and a workshop with 30 Year 6 Pupils from a local school. We spent the morning setting up, working alongside technicians from Cambridge Junction.

Exhibiting the Props

Some of the props we made as part of the animations were exhibited alongside the film and animation...

Workshop with Year 6 Pupils

We invited a local primary school, Morley Memorial, to visit and see some of the animations and have a go at making animations.

Live Link to the Baltic, Newcastle

The teenagers had a live link with teachers from primary and secondary schools attending a teacher meeting at the Baltic Arts Centre. They showed the props, answered questions and talked about art education.

Time to Share the Final Animations!

The project was introduced by Paula from AccessArt...

and then it was time to share...

"I thoroughly enjoyed seeing the fruits of these young people's labours last night – their creativity and confidence as 13 year-olds is absolutely awesome ! Well done for making it such a great project, and a super occasion." Chris Owen, Honorary Visiting Senior Fellow, Cambridge School of Art

"A great event last night, you should be proud of what you started and how it developed into the final spectacular finish. The yellow T-shirt's were obviously so engaged with the project and totally behind what creativity can bring to their lives and hopefully that will inspire others to do the same." Jane Reynard, Scolaquip

"A totally inspiring event from @accessart #BeACreativeProducer last night. Amazing young people, and looking forward to hopefully collaborating in the future." Lynne Simpkin, NUA

*“The pupils were awesome and so inspiring. All our art teachers were talking about it afterwards. They did u proud!”
Paul Carney, Neaten*

“What an event this was. It shared processes as well as outcomes, it showed creativity by the bucketload, it shared the strength and power of friendship and collaboration. It made my heart sing. Can’t thank you enough for the opportunity to watch this project develop and then to attend this unique and special day.” Susan Coles, Artist, Activist & Educator
