

Winter Still Life

By Sheila Ceccarelli

Teenagers from AccessArt's Experimental Drawing Class, explored building a layered drawing of a winter still life, during a one and a quarter hour session, on a dark, December evening.

Winter Still Life

The idea was to use a combination of drawing, collage, print making and mixed media to create a drawing or seasonal greeting card.

We used very simple printmaking techniques, drawing on foam board and using an office ink pad to print simple shapes over collaged and drawn elements.

Morag Thompson Merriman

Mo is a Scottish visual artist with a MA (Hons) degree in Fine Art. Her work is an intuitive response to the way memory is overlaid with historic or recent experiences of loss, absence and change, experimenting with ways to convey ‘presence’, or the sense of something being revealed or concealed. She is inspired by familial connections to the landscape and her inherited collection of earthy textured pottery ware. Small in scale, her work is mostly on paper, manipulated with mixed media to create subtle, richly textured surfaces. Mo is responsible for all social media marketing for AccessArt on Instagram and works part-time.
