

Clare Boreham Kerr

Clare Boreham Kerr

Clare Boreham Kerr studied Fine Art at Newcastle University, graduating in 1999. She completed a PGCE in primary education gaining a distinction and started teaching in Newcastle in 2001. Since 2006 she has been teaching at Benton Dene School, a SEND school for children with autism, learning difficulties and SEMH in North Tyneside.

In 2017 she began delivering Art and DT PPA across KS2 classes at Benton Dene School. The school has a dedicated art and DT room which is accessed by most KS2 classes and has been developed to be flexible and meet varying needs.