

Exploring A Midsummer Night's Dream Through Art

AGES 4 TO 11

Explore A Midsummer Night's Dream through 6 enriching sessions that focus on a range of drawing and painting techniques.

Each one hour session includes a warm up, followed by a starter discussion and then a main activity.

The sessions are designed to be flexible, and you may wish to explore selected activities in greater depth, or add different plot points from the play.

JOIN ACCESSART
TO ACCESS ALL
RESOURCES

Getting Started

Setting the scene of A Midsummer Night's Dream...

Exploring Shakespeare through art

Build your understanding of how visual art can enhance our experience of Shakespeare.

a brief outline of the play

First, familiarise yourself with the play's plot and characters.

resources

Now try these resources in your classroom

Session one: Athenian Portraits

Drawing fabric and creating portraits of the wealthy Athenian elite.

session two: A costume for bottom

Observing fur and creating a characterful costume design for the hapless Bottom.

session three: forest collage part 1

Exploring collage and creating a textured background and detail of the forest.

Session four: forest collage part 2

Adding moonlight and shadow to the forest collage to create mystery and intrigue.

session five: magic spells

Drawing small and creating magic spells on scrolls inspired by Oberon's words.

session six: recounting the story

Drawing scenes from the play using creative storyboarding methods.