

The AccessArt Gallery

Show us how AccessArt has influenced your creative offering and be inspired by others!

We are curating a new online gallery to share work created within your schools and community settings, inspired by AccessArt.

This is an open call for schools and artist educators to send in high quality images of artwork inspired by our resources so that we can upload to our online gallery.

We hope that by sharing your pupils' achievement we can inspire each other! #InspiredbyAccessArt
