

James Grimditch

James Grimditch

James Grimditch grew up in Milton Keynes, Buckinghamshire. His early interest in the arts started in primary school and stayed with him all the way through to Kingston University where he completed a BA Fine Art degree in 2009. He spent time living and working as an artist in East London before travelling and living for a year in Perth, Australia. In 2016 he returned to his roots in Milton Keynes and began his PGCE teaching qualification. He now splits his time between painting and working as an art lead in a primary school.

Website

See Resources Below...