- “AccessArt is a very inspiring platform. Clear, efficient, simple and inclusive. It makes you want to leave everything you are doing, and start making stuff...”
- “The best £42 I spent this year by far! I am so pleased to have discovered AccessArt and thrilled with the resources. Thank you!”
- “I use AccessArt’s website for inspiration and a connection to other educators and art ideas. I live in New Zealand and the site always kick starts my thinking, gives me new directions and makes me feel connected globally. I love the diversity of activities for a range of ages and learning needs. This is the best site for arts education that really challenges and pushes kids, teachers and other groups into some great collaborative projects and ideas. Thanks AccessArt, you rock my creative world.”

- “As an artist, educator and art therapist, I definitely utilize your postings to keep my planning fresh and focused for all the many levels of development I get to work with! Keep on bringing those vibrant pics, easy to follow inspirations, and brilliant structure! All the way from the USA!”
- “The discovery-based, process-oriented projects work so well and are so inspiring to myself as well as my kids. I wish this had been how I had been trained to teach art.”
- “I LOVE AccessArt. I am a teaching artist and find your project ideas most aligned with the freedom and imagination that I like to bring to the classroom. I am always inspired.”
- “An endless supply of brilliantly organic ideas that constantly challenge, inspire and help develop my practice”
