

The Sketchbook Journey Step 5: Sketchbooks In Action

<<< Back to the Main Sketchbook Journey Page

Sketchbooks Owned by Artists

Sketchbooks are powerful tools. Explore the secret powers of sketchbooks with artist, Jo Blaker. Find more of Jo's videos exploring sketchbooks here.

On this page you will find lots of sketchbooks owned by artists, students and teachers! Explore the different and exciting ways in which sketchbooks are used to generate and develop ideas, capture moments in time and explore the world around us.

Explore Resources...

Jo Blaker

Jo shares her passion for sketchbooks and why they mean so much to her

Scarlett Rebecca

Set drawing challenges, write down recipes and understand the world you, inspired by Scarlett's sketchbooks

Rachel Parker

See how Rachel uses sketchbooks to collect colour, inspiring her designs

Claire Harrup

Claire Harrup shares how she uses her sketchbooks as “scrap books”

Rosie Hurley

3d Illustrator Rosie Hurley shows us how she develops ideas through sketchbook work

Inbal Leitner

Illustrator Inbal Leitner demonstrates how she uses sketchbooks to respond to poetry

Tatyana Antoun

A 3D pop-up sketchbook by fashion designer Tatyana Antoun

Saoirse Morgan

See how Saoirse fills concertina sketchbooks to use as inspiration for bigger paintings

Jo Blaker

Jo shares her grandfathers book which she uses as a sketchbook

Tonka Uzu

Artist Tonka Uzu shares how she uses sketchbooks to help develop the ideas behind her evocative illustrations

Andrea Butler

Andrea from AccessArt shares her sketchbooks made from old books and magazines

Jonathan Ford

A Sculptor's Sketchbook

Debbie Greenaway

An Illustrator's Sketchbook

Rob Gill

An Illustrator's Sketchbook

Felix Liebig

An Architect's Sketchbook

Gemma Longbottom

An Animator's Sketchbook

Emma Davies

An Artist's Sketchbook

Sketchbooks Owned by Pupils

Sketchbook Exploration of Paul Nash

Katherine Woodard shares how she used sketchbooks to help an exploration of war

artist Paul Nash

A Sketchbook Journey at Haslingfield Primary School

Teacher Katherine Woodard talks through how sketchbooks are used in her setting

Early Primary Sketchbooks

Pupil's begin sketchbook work

Making Elastic Band Sketchbooks

Andrea Butler shares a session at Philip Southcote school, making elastic band sketchbooks

The art of Zines

Explore a zine created by a group of creative Sixth Form students

Walking Sketchbooks

Teenagers take their sketchbooks into the streets

Sketchbooks Owned by Teachers

Teachers make sketchbooks at the Fitzwilliam Museum

Teachers use drawings made during a CPD session to make sketchbooks

Using Sketchbooks in a gallery

Teachers use sketchbooks to help them see, understand and reflect, in a gallery environment

<<< Back to the Main Sketchbook Journey Page