

Talking Points: Morag Myerscough

A collection of sources and imagery to explore the work of Morag Myerscough.

Please note that this page contains links to external websites and has videos from external websites embedded. At the time of creating, AccessArt checked all links to ensure content is appropriate for teachers to access. However external websites and videos are updated and that is beyond our control.

Please let us know if you find a 404 link, or if you feel content is no longer appropriate.

We strongly recommend as part of good teaching practice that teachers watch all videos and visit all websites before sharing with a class. On occasion there may be elements of a video you would prefer not to show to your class and it is the teacher's responsibility to ensure content is appropriate. Many thanks.

If you are having issues viewing videos it may be due to your schools firewall or your cookie selection. Please check with your IT department.

Questions to Ask Children

What do you like about Morag's work?

How does her work make you feel?

How would it feel to be in that space, interacting with the sculpture?

How many people do you think were involved in making/installing Morag's installations? What jobs did they have to do

Do you think the artists minds making an artwork which won't last forever?

How do you think the people felt when they returned to the "normal" landscape around them? Would they have been changed by the artwork?
